Foundation Fact

The above logo was drawn by Caitlin in 2009, and labeled "People In Purple" in her journal. The foundation used her artwork and added the phrase "Helping People In Need" to come up with our slogan "People In Purple, Helping People in Need".

Meredith Holt, Scholarship Recipient 2010

The Caitlin Brondolo Charitable Foundation awarded The 1st Annual Caitlin Brondolo Golf Scholarship on July 26, 2010. The scholarship, in the amount of $2,500 was established to honor Caitlin's memory. Caitlin had a passion for golf since the age of 8, and played in many area tournaments. She had dreams of playing collegiate golf and going on to the LPGA.

Meredith, from Indiana, is attending Indiana Purdue Fort Wayne University, where she is a member of her collegiate golf team. She played high school golf for 4 years, and participates in many extra curricular activities.

Congratulations Meredith and best of luck in college!

A Message from Chris, Jill, and Cassie Brondolo,

Thank you for the wonderful support you have given us. Caitlin's memory continues to be honored through your donations to Caitlin's foundation. Your generosity enables us to impact lives and carry out our mission of carbon monoxide awareness and prevention. Please visit our website for up to date information.

Cassie Brondolo was thrilled to meet Arianna Grande at our Golf Tournament. Arianna Grande plays the role of Cat Valentine on the Nickelodeon Television program Victorious. Arianna graciously agreed to attend our Golf Tournament reception and sign autographs. She also posed for photos and talked to the teens that were present. Arianna generously gave of her time to a lucky winner who won a limo ride and lunch date with the actress.

Your donation is tax deductible. Caitlin Brondolo Charitable Foundation, Inc. is a registered 501 (c) 3 nonprofit corporation.
